"We needed to find an advertising agency, but we weren't sure where to start. EverythingDAR.com made the process easy and painless. I was able to easily identify options, be in direct contact with management, and send them a scope of work. Within two days of looking on EverythingDAR.com, I had meetings set and quotes in hand. We could not have moved that quickly otherwise." Alfred Wise – Country Director, KickStart International.

"As a Recruiting Agency, I find EverythingDAR.com very useful. I post all our job vacancies that require educated and computer literate professionals and have had good results. I think the fact that it is online naturally filters applicants and produces job candidates that are more professional and more computer literate. The ratio of truly viable candidates is much higher from EverythingDAR.com than it is from advertising job vacancies in printed media." Miranda Naiman – MD, Empower
